WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

Dvara Kshetriya Gramin Financial Services Private Limited (hereafter referred to as “the Company”) is committed to maintaining highest standards of ethics, honesty and integrity and in promoting these, the Company encourages an open communication in all its interaction between its employees, consultants, customers and all the people with whom the company comes into contact.

The company believes that it is important to prevent corruption, misuse of office property/powers, suspected / actual frauds, acts resulting in Financial Loss / Operational Risk, Loss of reputation, etc. These are activities which are not only detrimental to the Company but also to the customer’s interest / public interest. The company considers it important to provide an appropriate forum to provide the various stakeholders to fearlessly and openly inform about any of the above-mentioned activities. Therefore, the “Whistleblower Policy” has been ideated and introduced for this specific purpose.

Further, Section 177 (9) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Meeting of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 mandates the company to constitute a vigil mechanism.

This policy will encourage the stakeholders to bring any issue relating to violation of ethical, regulatory norms, rules and regulations etc. to the company’s notice without any fear of retaliation, discrimination or harassment.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide an avenue for the stakeholders to raise concerns and also provide necessary safeguards for protecting any individuals who come forward from reprisals or victimization, for whistleblowing in good faith.

Eligibility

All stakeholders are eligible to raise an issue under the provisions of the policy. The stakeholders are employees (Including trainees) of the company, directors, consultants, vendors, customers and any other individual who is associated with the company. However, there is no limitation on who can be a whistleblower as we wish to encourage reporting of any wrong doings by anyone.

protected disclosure under the Policy or rendered assistance in inquiry under the policy, is not victimized by initiation of any proceedings or otherwise merely on the raising alarm over any wrongdoing in the company. Such whistle blower need not fear the risk of losing his/her job, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, disciplinary action, retaliation, alienation from peers, any type of obstruction in his/her functioning at his/her workplace. The whistle blower's right derived from the position being held by him/her in the company shall be protected at any cost.

However, this protection will be available to him/her subject to the following:

- i. That the disclosure has been made in good faith and is genuine.
- ii. That the person making disclosure has made a personal declaration that he/she reasonably believes the information to be true and/or substantially true
- iii. That the complaint is not motivated or vexatious.
- iv. That the complaint is not made for personal gains.
- v. That the complaint has been made in the role of whistle blower and not just as a complainant.

This assurance will not be extended to the employee who has made a disclosure malafide and knowing that it was incorrect or false or misleading. In such case, he/she shall be liable to Disciplinary Action(s). The Competent Authority shall recommend to the management to take such disciplinary action and preventive/corrective action as deemed fit.

If the employee raising alarm as whistle blower is aggrieved by any action on the ground that he/she is being victimized due to the fact that he/she had filed a complaint or disclosure, he/she may file an application before the Chairman of Audit Committee, as the case may be, for seeking redressal in the matter, who shall take such action as deemed fit.

Procedure for Disclosure

Competent Authority, which accepts such disclosures, will have the responsibility of keeping the identity of the employee making disclosure as secret. Hence, the person making any protected disclosure will have to comply with the following conditions:

- i. The Protected Disclosure should either be made by email addressed to whistleblower@dvarakgfs.com or be made in a closed/secured envelope.
- ii. If the complaint is made in envelope, the envelope should be addressed to Competent Authority- Whistle Blowing, Dvara Kshetriya Gramin Financial Services Private Limited, 10th Floor, Phase I, IIT-M Research Park, Kanagam Village, Taramani, Chennai – 600 113 and should be superscribed "Complaint under Protected Disclosure Scheme of the company". If the envelope is not superscribed and closed, it may not be possible for the Competent Authority of the company to protect the identity of employee making disclosure under this Policy. The whistle blower should give his/her name and address in the beginning or end of complaint or in an attached letter. However, the Whistle Blower should not write his name and address on the envelope itself.
- iii. The whistle-blower may preferably avoid anonymity when raising a concern.
- iv. If the complainant desires that his/her identity should not be disclosed, he/she should draft the text of complaint in such a manner that it does not give any details or clue to his/her identity. However, the details of the complaint should be specific and verifiable.

- v. If the Whistle Blower believes that there is a conflict of interest between the Competent Authority and the Whistle Blower, he/she may send his/her protected disclosure to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the company.
- vi. With a view to protect his/her identity, the Competent Authority in the company will not issue any acknowledgement and the whistle-blowers are advised not to enter into any further correspondence with the Competent Authority in their own interest.

In case, the company needs the assistance of Whistle Blower in investigation into the complaint, he/she will be required to cooperate in that matter.

Procedure for Enquiry/Investigation

- i. All complaints will be recorded and acted upon promptly.
- ii. Where complaint has no basis or substance at all, it will be dismissed at this stage by the Competent Authority and decision will be documented. Where the competent authority is prima facie satisfied that the complaint carries a vigilance angle and warrants investigation, the complaint will be referred for investigation.
- iii. During the investigation process, if any employee retaliates or tampers with evidence, then this would lead to disciplinary action including termination of employment. The disciplinary action or the corrective action initiated against the alleged person shall adhere to the disciplinary action procedures.
- iv. Once the decision to enquire/investigation is taken, the Competent authority will ensure that the complaints are enquired/investigated and action taken to its logical conclusion within a reasonable time.
- v. The whistle-blower is not required to investigate and he/she should not on his/her own involve in any investigative activities.
- vi. The alleged person has a right to know the outcome of the investigation and also has a right to appeal to the Board of Directors of the company.

Maintenance of Record

The Competent Authority will

- i. Personally open all the emails/envelops pertaining to the matters under the policy.
- ii. Ensure that a register is maintained for recording complaints marking the number of the complaint and date of its receipt.
- iii. Bring the complaint to the notice of the Audit Committee, as the case may be, immediately on its receipt.
